RULES OF COMPETITION

All valid 2018 UCI competition rules come into effect.

Every rider has to wear his/her national or international number.(color of number plate and digit in accordance with official UCI reglement). Should there be the case, that two riders on a Alpe-Adria event do have the same numbers, the rider from outer country has to put the prefix of his / her country in front of the number. (prefixes are specified below)

(I = Italy, A = Austria, H = Hungary, S = Slovenia, G = Germany)

The organizer of the event has to provide the needed prefix for the numberplate for affected riders of all countries!

Every rider must have a UCI conform sideplate with his/her number, properly attached to his/her bike.

SPD pedals are admitted from vintage 2005.

When using SPD pedals, the rider has to prove that he/she is able to get in and out at the pedals on his/her own, whenever an official requests this.

At every executed race, a daily ranking of every class has to be provided public and officially.

After hang-up of the daily ranking, there is a protest time of 15 minutes. The day rankings in the according categories are binding to the final ranking.

All Alpe-Adria events are generally run with mixed motos.

Pro section rules:

If there is a pro-section available on the track, Men 17+ OPEN have to ride there. However, other categories are not permitted to ride on the pro section.

Exceptions:

If Men 17+ and Boys 15 – 16 get consolidated, the decision if the pro line or challenge line have to be ridden will be made during the team manager meeting.

If it's decided during the team-manager-meeting that the pro-line is closed (weather conditions, rain,, wind and so on), this decision affects all riders – no free line choice pro/challenge for 17+!

For the prize-giving ceremony, athletes of all categories have to show up in complete race/sport-outfit. (Team jersey, race pants, sport-shoes)
